

Rensselaer County SART 9th Annual Conference "Creating Inclusion in Our Communities"

A day for professionals from different disciplines to experience specialized training together.

Keynote Speakers Include:

Sexual Violence in the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Communities - Keri Darling and her interpreter Cory will lead you through an informative and often humorous program. Attendees will gain knowledge about different kinds of deaf and hard-of-hearing people, along with developing skills for interacting and communicating with these communities. Keri includes information specifically for certain situations, what to do and how to do it and different behaviors that are often misinterpreted. The hope is for attendees to walk away from this workshop knowing more about deaf culture and its people and developing a comfort zone in which they can work in the future if they interact with deaf and hard-of-hearing community members.

Technology Safety - New York State Computer Crime Unit. Presentation on valuable and timely information on current internet and technology matters. Taking a look at emerging trends to keep up with the sophisticated perpetrator that is present in
